At Butte it is expected that the properties of the combine will soon be placed in a position to produce in the meighborhood of 4,000 tons of ore daily.

Many of the properties are conceded to be exceedingly valuable, and it has been only that they were tied up in estates and by litigation for the last fifteen years that they have not been only.

about Boston Consolidated, as his holdings must already show him a very large profit.

"The most careful analysis of the Newhouse statements cannot fail to convince one that his actuating impulse was just as he stated it: 'I feel it my duty as president and manager of the company to urge stockholders to retain their shares even though the temptation to sell at a profit is strong.' Otherwise stated resident Newhouse has a clearer conception of his duty to the stockholders of his company than $5 per cent of the corporation officials of the world pospess, and he dared to do it. The mine and its probable carning capacity had enormously increased in value and he recognized that it was the right of the owners of the property to know it. His action entitles him to the highest posporation officials in every department of industrial activity. Instead of using his knowledge for his own personal ends, as is too often done by mining officials, as it is command and has put himself in a position to be held personally responsible for its accuracy.

GOOD WORDS FOR BINGHAM.

Merit of the Lively Stocks Is Recognized in Boston.

Reviewing the Boston copper share market for the past week, Hayden, Stone & Co. make the following complimentary reference to stocks representing some of the Bingham bonanzas:

"In the Boston stock market there is evidence of a great change in the character of stocks which obtain the greatest favor from the public. Buyers are very fond of new applicants for their favor. And another noteworthy development is that from the mining districts of the west and from the most substantial financial interests in the country which are acquainted with mining values there comes a great demand for certain

John A. Kirby Is Now Directing Development of Property.

The Balaklala is already sufficiently developed to provide almost any tonnage that a large smelting plant might demand, while the properties of the Mexico Consolidated are alréady making good money and at the same time undergoing extensive development.

Details of the entire proposition are maturing rapidly and the expectation is that it will not be many months till Mr. Coram and his associates will be able to make formal announcement of their plans.

Velopment of Property.

John A. Kirby, with Secretary J. W. Langley, visited the Anaconda-Tonopah during the week and reports satisfactory progress being made, says the Tonopah Bonanza. Mr. Kirby is directing the work and is well pleased with improved conditions. About two feet of copper ore are showing on the foot wall, and lying above this are three feet of high grade enough for shipment.

The values are improving as greater depth is obtained and there is no question but the near future will see the Anaconda a mine second to the Neyada Alpine. They are drifting on the ore and only the ore thus encountered is being nicely and suitable buildings for the accommodation of a large force of men have been erected.

The subscriptions to the Japanese loan, it is believed, will not be payable until next year except for small preliminary installments. Sterling exchange declined in this market, but New York exchange at Chicago also dropped back to 25 cents premium compared with 40 cents premium yesterday, and views of the return flow of currency to New York were modified accordingly. The pressure on the southern railroad stocks was aggravated late in the day by the heavy falling off in the sinning of cotton indicated by the census bureau's report, which precipitated a panis among the bears on the cotton exchange. The irregular tone of the latter market was not altered by the violent bidding up of Brocklyn Transit and National Lead, and the last prices were namy cases below those of last night. Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $3,220,000.

United States new 4s declined ½ per cent on call.
